

MEMO

To: Chancery Court Clerks of the First Chancery Court District

From: Talmadge D. Littlejohn, Chancellor

Effective January 1, 2007 I will be hearing the following matters on my Vacation Days (Fridays) in Alcorn, Lee, Tishomingo, and Union Counties, to wit:

1. Motions (that require no proof or testimony)
2. Emergency hearings on domestic relations matters
3. Irreconcilable differences divorces
4. Department of Human Services cases
5. Ex parte matters
6. Any other uncontested matters

In addition, I will consider pro se no-fault divorces presented by the parties with such documents to be prepared in full compliance with all statutory requirements, the Mississippi Rules of Civil Procedure, and the Uniform Chancery Court Rules of the State of Mississippi.

Please disseminate this information immediately to all attorneys in your respective counties so that they will be advised of this new procedure for Vacation Days as conducted by the undersigned Chancellor.

This the 1st day of January, 2007.

TALMADGE D. LITTLEJOHN
